

BOB EVERY

Class of 1962

Robert (Bob) Lindsay Every, 1958 - 1962, gained a Bachelor of Science at UNSW in 1968 and a Ph.D. in Metallurgy in 1971, and then a senior management course at the University of Michigan/ University of Navarra IESE in 1995. He spent some time in industrial research and then pursued a management career in significant Australian companies.

From 1982 Bob held various senior positions with Tubemakers of Australia Ltd, including Managing Director in 1995. He became President of BHP Steel in 1999, after being the executive responsible for the construction and development of steel mills and processing in the U.S.A., Indonesia, Malaysia, Thailand and Saudi Arabia.

In 2000 Bob became Managing Director and CEO of OneSteel Limited.

In 2000 he was awarded a Centenary Medal of Australia for service to Australian Society in Metallurgy.