

LES GOCK
Class of 1971

Les Gock has a career in film and television soundtracks which began in 1971. His time as a writer, co-producer and guitarist in the Australian rock group HUSH during the mid-70s earned him 12 gold records. He has won every major award for music excellence including Gold Clios, Facts Awards, New York international Advertising Festival awards, and many more.

He is the managing director of Song Zu Records and Management. His reputation as a successful entrepreneur and businessman has been demonstrated through the ongoing development of Song Zu and their client base into New Zealand, Southeast Asia, Britain and the USA.

In 2003 Les was appointed the Chairman of the Commercial Music Association.